RENNY CORDOVA may meet "Kid" Arrousey, Fred Winsor's coast sensation, in a ten-round bout at Silver City or Albuquerque in the near future. Arrousey is a feather-weight but has challenged Cordova to fight at 133 pounds and is agreeable to taking on the bout on a winner take all basis.

WACO is after Graham, the 20th infantry pitcher, and is likely to land him. Graham is still a young-ster but has the makings of a star flinger. He has "a little of everything" as any little of everything.

WHILE the middle of November is rather late for baseball, the El Paso climate makes many things possible "out of season" and the fans are reminded that the Professionals and Army all-stars will resume their series at Rio Grande park on Sun-day afternoon, with Graham and Cronicker as the pitching probabil-ities for the soldiers with Lewis

FREDDIE WELSH has signed for a 12-round bout at Winnipeg, Man., next Monday night with Johnny O'Leary, lightweight champion of western Canada. O'Leary is a classy boxer with a fair wallop and the bout at Winnipeg abould be a good one. The Canuck is clever enough to keep Welsh from stalling, if Freddie should be so inclined, for Johnny's Classifications Are So Arranged That Those Who Have Much to Spend on Decorations and Those Who Have Little Will Have Equal Chance to Win Prizes; Reports of Committees Are Heard at Luncheon.

A bile, tire and accessory men was held at the Sheldon grill today at the huncheon hour, the purpose of the gathering being to hear the reports of the various committees which are in charge of the preparations for "El Pase Antomobile Week."

Chief of the reports was that of the parade committee, submitted by H. K. Bernard, the chairman, and supplemented by about remarks from other incenders of the committee.

Mr. Hernard stated that, so far as the actual preparations are concerned, the parade could be held within 15 hours and yet cause no confusion. The plans have been worked out in detail and the hig parade will be handled with military precision.

Prizes Well Arranged.

The prizes offered are valuable and some keen competition is expected by the car owners. The committee has not endeavored to restrict, in any manner, the method of decoration and expects to distribute the prizes so that all divisions of the parade will have
